

MUCH

MANY

Much and Many are both determiners, with more or less the same basic meaning: "in great quantity" or "in large number". There is, however, a distinction in their usage.

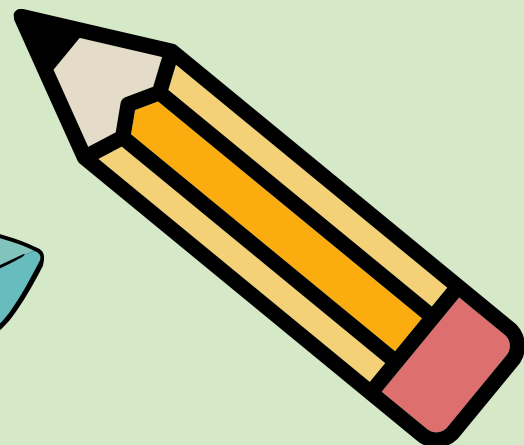

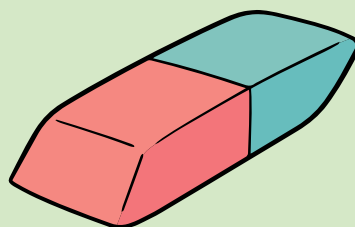

MUCH

- Is an adjective.
- Used for uncountable nouns, which are in singular form.
- Refers to a large amount of an uncountable noun.

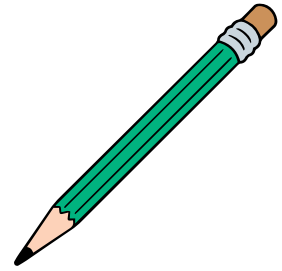

MANY

- Is also an adjective.
- Used for countable nouns, which are in plural form.
- Refers to a large number of countable nouns.
